The Voices Of Time A "The Voices of Time" is a dystopian science fiction short story by British author J. G. Ballard. It was first published in the October 1960 edition of New Worlds, and later in the 1962 collection The Voices of Time and Other Stories. It is an early example of the Inner Space type of story which drove the New Wave movement in the 1960s. Its primary theme is one which was common in the New Wave, that of entropy and the breakdown of all things.

J. G. Ballard's second short story collection, Voices of Time and Other Stories (1962), is only ever so slightly less brilliant than his first, Billionaire (1962). The stories are often linked thematically: exploring post-apocalyptic landscapes, rituals in the face of death, urban alienation, mental fragmentation.
